

Consumer Law Portal

Consumer law is an area of law that regulates the relationships between you the consumer and the business that sells you goods and/or services. Consumer protection covers a wide range of topics, including but not necessarily limited to product liability, privacy rights, unfair business practices, fraud, and other consumer/business interactions.

Consumer laws deal with credit repair, debt, product safety, contracts, debt collection, identity theft, bankruptcy, small claims and much more.

You can learn about the laws that affect you by exploring the different areas of law listed below under "Pages" or on the upper right hand side under "Consumer Law Portal".

Select the "Consumer Law Guide" below to start an interactive interview that will help you determine what information will help you with your current consumer law issue.

Select the "Consumer Law Index" below to use a clickable outline view of the contents and information available within the Consumer Law Portal.

Click on the words "Useful Information" below to find more information about what you are looking for. Or, in the search box above, enter a keyword and click the "Search" button.
